

Attendance & Timekeeping Policy | SPRING 2026 EDITION

Effective May 1, 2026 · Owner: April Gauthier, Supervisor, Eastern Washington

Team — showing up on time, every time, is the single most important commitment you make to the team. This document covers how we track time, what counts as on-time, and what happens when expectations aren't met.

Clocking In & Out

- Clock in and out for every shift and lunch break using your PIN.
- Do not share your PIN with anyone.

Break & Lunch Rules

PAID BREAK

15 min

FOR EVERY 4 HOURS WORKED

UNPAID LUNCH

30 min

FOR EVERY 5 HOURS WORKED

WAIVING LUNCH

If you choose to skip your lunch, send a text or email to your supervisor confirming you waived it. No confirmation = no waiver.

Time Off & PTO

⚠ ADVANCE APPROVAL REQUIRED

All time off must be requested and approved in advance. Submitting a request is not the same as receiving approval — do not assume your time off is covered until your supervisor confirms it. Unapproved absences are treated under the Attendance Escalation Process below.

TIME OFF REQUESTS

- Submit requests as far in advance as possible.
- Wait for explicit confirmation from your supervisor.
- Without confirmation, you are still scheduled.

PAID TIME OFF (PTO)

- Part-Time — earns sick time
- Full-Time — earns sick & vacation time
- Balances and requests in Oracle

Attendance Expectations

From the Employee Handbook. The standard for every shift, every week.

- Arrive on time for your shift.
- Stay for your entire scheduled work time.
- If you cannot come to work:
 - Call your supervisor as soon as possible.
 - Call must be made no later than 2 hours before your scheduled start time.
 - Call in each day you are scheduled but unable to work.

⚠ CRITICAL RULE

Contact your direct Supervisor — NOT your Team Lead. Team Leads cannot approve absences or document call-outs.

Attendance Escalation Process

Excessive absences or tardiness may result in discipline, up to and including termination. The progression depends on the nature of the violation.

NO CALL / NO SHOW

A No Call / No Show means you did not come to work and did not notify your supervisor.

1 Supervisor attempts contact

Your supervisor will reach out to determine your status.

! No response → 24-hour job abandonment notice

If contact attempts go unanswered, a formal abandonment notice is issued.

- ✕ 24 hours pass with no communication → terminated
Termination for job abandonment.
- ! If you respond → first and final warning
A formal written warning is placed in your file.
- ✕ Another No Call / No Show within 6 months → terminated
No additional warnings — the first-and-final warning is exactly that.

TARDINESS OR LEAVING EARLY WITHOUT APPROVAL

WHAT COUNTS AS TARDY

You must be in the store, checked in with your Team Lead, and ready to work at your scheduled start time. Tardiness begins 5 minutes after your scheduled start time.

1 FIRST	Attendance policy reminder
2 SECOND	Verbal warning
3 THIRD	Written warning
4 FOURTH	Final written warning
5 FIFTH	Termination

ADDITIONAL TRIGGERS

Failure to give proper notice when you cannot work or need to leave early results in an immediate write-up if supervisor approval was not received. Leaving before work is completed without permission is treated as job abandonment and may result in termination.

RESET WINDOW

The offense counter resets after 12 months with no incidents. Stay clean for a year and the slate clears.
