

Dress Code Policy

Spring 2026 Edition — Effective May 1, 2026 — Owner: April Gauthier, Supervisor, Eastern Washington

Dress for the Business Day

Our goal is to maintain a casual, professional, and safe work environment. All teammates are expected to present themselves in a way that reflects professionalism and respect for others.

General Expectations

- Dress should be neat, clean, and professional
- Practice good grooming and hygiene
- Clothing, hair, jewelry, and makeup must be appropriate for work
- Always use good judgment when choosing what to wear
- Presentation must be safe for the work environment

Acceptable Attire

The following items are permitted while working in the store:

- Polo shirts
- T-shirts with a company logo
- Casual slacks
- Clean, non-ripped jeans
- Close-toed shoes
- Required name badge with your name and company name
- Clean, well-groomed appearance at all times

Coverage Requirement

Shirts must fully cover the midriff, lower back, and shoulders at all times.

Unacceptable Attire

The following items are not allowed:

Clothing

- Overalls, leggings, shorts, mini-skirts
- Sweatshirts, sweatpants, exercise or athletic wear
- Tank tops, spaghetti-strap shirts
- Cropped tops, midriff-baring shirts, or low-back tops
- Beachwear or sleepwear
- T-shirts or sweaters with writing/images that are not company or product related
- Dirty, wrinkled, torn, ripped, sheer, revealing, or ill-fitting clothing

Shoes

- Sandals, flip-flops, slippers, or any open-toed footwear

Accessories & Appearance

- Jewelry, accessories, hairstyles, or attire that create a safety hazard
- Excessive or distracting jewelry or accessories
- Strong or excessive odors, including heavy perfume, cologne, smoke, or body odor
- Tattoos with offensive imagery, language, or symbols must be covered. If you're unsure whether a tattoo qualifies, ask your supervisor before your shift

Electronics & Personal Devices

- No music-playing devices (speakers) on the sales floor
- No earbuds or headphones on the sales floor
- Cell phones must be:
 - Kept on silent
 - Used only for business purposes

Final Reminder

If you are unsure whether something is appropriate, ask your supervisor.

Everyone plays a role in maintaining a safe, professional, and welcoming workplace.

References:

- Teammate Handbook
- Fred Meyer Vendor Policies
- Kompass Responsibilities